

CryptoOracle Collective Member Expectations

1. Daily Call Participation

The CryptoOracle Daily Call is a vital communications tool for community members. Members should attend calls when available, and should review call agenda and notes when unable to attend

2. Expertise Overview

Each member should highlight their areas of expertise that they leverage for the benefit of Collective clients

3. Client Work

Each member is expected to work on at least one “paying” client starting within the two months of joining the Collective

4. Membership Recruitment

Each member is expected to bring at least one new member candidate to a morning call every month

5. Client recruitment

Each member is expected to bring at least one new client candidate to a morning call every quarter

6. Guest Recruitment

Each member is expected to bring at least one new guest to a morning call every quarter

7. Collective Improvement

Each member is expected to participate on one of the Collective Improvement Subcommittees that will be formed to optimize the impact of the Collective.